SUBJECT: Application for Correction of Military Records, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

1. The requested correction cannot be accomplished administratively at this headquarters.
2. The member is requesting that his record be changed to show that he added his spouse to his Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan (RCSBP) within one year of his marriage.
3. The following is an analysis of the circumstances surrounding the case:
 - a. The member made an election for children only with full, immediate coverage on 4 Apr 83. He was not married at the time of this election.
 - b. The member remarried 18 May 96, [REDACTED]
 - c. The member states that shortly after his marriage, he contacted the Air Reserve Personnel Center to obtain the information necessary to add his spouse to the RCSBP and was told that he could not accomplish this until applying for retired pay. He further states that at the time of applying for retired pay, he was told that he could not add his spouse to his RCSBP as the one year time limit had expired.
4. Per Title 10, United States Code, Section 1448(a)(B)(5), an individual can elect RCSBP coverage for a spouse if he does so within one year of marriage. Although there is no evidence that an injustice occurred, the member exhibited good intentions by inquiring as to the applicable procedures within this one year time limit.
5. Recommendation: Recommend the member's request be approved. If the decision is to grant the relief sought, the member's record should be corrected to show that he elected full, immediate coverage for spouse and children (Option CF) under the RCSBP, effective 15 May 97.
