RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS AIR FORCE BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

IN THE MATTER OF: DOCKET NUMBER: BC-2012-01115

COUNSEL: NONE

HEARING DESIRED: NO

APPLICANT REQUESTS THAT:

His retirement order be corrected to include a permanent change of station (PCS) without a change of assignment in order to utilize his one move entitlement for a temporary move to Washington state, then, to his home in South Carolina.

APPLICANT CONTENDS THAT:

The entitlement counseling he received was incorrect. Upon retiring from active duty, he had informed everyone he was moving temporarily to Washington State and then moving to his home in South Carolina.

In support of his request, the applicant submits copies of a Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) notice of one move entitlement, his retirement order and amendment, email correspondence, an 8 March 2012, memorandum from the Director of the Joint Personnel Property Shipping Office (JPPSO), and receipts pertaining to his Household Goods shipment (HHGs).

The applicant's complete submission, with attachments, is at Exhibit A.

STATEMENT OF FACTS:

According to documents extracted from the applicant's military personnel records (MPR), the applicant is a former commissioned officer of the Regular Air Force who served from 21 November 1990 through 31 July 2011, and was honorably retired in the grade of Lieutenant Colonel, and credited with 20 years, 8 months, and 10 days of active duty service.

By letter, dated 11 April 2012, AFPC/DPSOR advised the applicant that according to the Joint Federal Travel Regulations, Volume 1 (JFTR, Vol 1), which states: "A member on active duty is authorized travel and transportation allowances to a home selected by the member from the last permanent duty station (PDS) when the member is: retired with pay for any reason...," the applicant was authorized one move to his HOS. Based on his retirement application dated 6 April 2011, wherein, he selected a location in the state of Washington as his HOS, he has used his entitlement for travel and shipment of household goods as a result of travel to his HOS on 30 January 2012.

AIR FORCE EVALUATION:

AFPC/DPSOR recommends denial. DPSOR states based on the documentation on file in the applicant's master personnel records; the retirement order was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the Joint Federal Travel Regulations, Volume 1.

The complete AFPC/DPSOR evaluation is at Exhibit C.

APPLICANT'S REVIEW OF AIR FORCE EVALUATION:

In his response the applicant reiterates his contention that he was mis-counseled regarding his entitlements at the time of his retirement processing. In support of this statement he includes a copy of the Director of the Joint Personal Property Shipping Office's memorandum dated 8 March 2012. In this memorandum the director confirms the applicant's assertion that the entitlement counseling he received was incorrect because of the absence of the DD Form 1797, Personal Property Counseling Checklist and AF Form 2473, Home of Selection Travel and Transportation Transportation Entitlements, which were required documents and should have been provided at the time of the counseling. The applicant also states he did not receive the proper entitlement options as he made clear his intentions to temporarily move to Washington State for six months then move to his home in South Carolina where he has been since early February 2012. Additionally, the applicant expresses his disappointment in the 22 June 2012, AFPC/DPSOR letter which, he states, totally failed to address the main problem of his being mis-counseled or the fact that the Director of JPPSO has confirmed and so stated in his personal memorandum.

The applicant's complete response, with attachment, is at attachment D.

ADDITIONAL AIR FORCE EVALUATION:

PPA/ECAF recommends approval. ECAF states that according to a memorandum dated 8 March 2012, from the Joint Personal Property Shipping Office, Joint Base Hickam-Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, the applicant has been provided the benefit of the doubt regarding the entitlement counseling received as being incorrect due to the absence of the AF Form 2473, Home of Selection Travel and Transportation Entitlements, and DD Form 1797, Personal Property Counseling Checklist, in the shipment file. Based on the above, there was a potential error in counseling resulting in an injustice against the applicant regarding his travel and transportation entitlements upon retirement from an overseas PDS. They concur with the applicant's request for authorization of travel and transportation allowances to Washington, then to his HOS in South Carolina.

The complete PPA/ECAF evaluation is at Exhibit E

APPLICANT'S REVIEW OF ADDITIONAL AIR FORCE EVALUATION:

A copy of the additional Air Force evaluation (Exhibit F) was forwarded to the applicant on 9 July 2012 for review and comment within 30 days. To date, this office has not received a response.

THE BOARD CONCLUDES THAT:

- 1. The applicant has exhausted all remedies provided by existing law or regulations.
- 2. The application was timely filed.
- Sufficient relevant evidence has been presented demonstrate the existence of an error or an injustice warranting corrective action. We took notice of the applicant's complete submission, to include his comments provided in rebuttal to the Air Force evaluation, in judging the merits of the case and agree with PPA/ECAF's determination that the applicant should be reimbursed for his out-of-pocket expenses related to his In this respect, we agree the personally procured move (PPM). applicant may not have been provided appropriate counseling concerning his travel and transportation entitlements retirement from an overseas permanent duty station. considered the applicant's request to correct his retirement orders to include a permanent change of station (PCS) without permanent change of assignment (PCA), however; we believe the relief recommended by PPA/ECAF is the more appropriate remedy. Accordingly, we recommend his records be corrected as indicated below.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT:

The pertinent military records of the Department of the Air Force relating to APPLICANT, be corrected to show that competent authority approved:

- a. The retirement processing station for the applicant was Cashmere Washington, and the applicant was authorized travel and transportation entitlement from Hawaii to his home of selection (HOS) in accordance with Joint Federal Travel Regulations Volume 1, paragraph U5345-G.3.
- b. The applicant's incentive payment in the amount of $5, 445.34 for effecting a 10,360 pound personally procured move (PPM) from Cashmere Washington to Sumter, South Carolina.
