AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL RATIONALE	CASE NUMBER FD02-0460
--	--------------------------

GENERAL: The applicant appeals for a change of the reason and authority for the discharge.

The applicant was offered a personal appearance before the Discharge Review Board (DRB) but declined to exercise this right.

The attached brief contains the available pertinent data on the applicant and the factors leading to the discharge.

FINDINGS: The appeal is denied.

ISSUE: The applicant received an Honorable discharge and the Reason was Unsatisfactory Performance. The member states that the record does not take into account the 5 years and 4 months of honorable and faithful service that he put in and that his discharge was only based on one incident. The record shows that the applicant received ten Memorandum's for Record and one Letter of Admonishment for disobeying a direct order and dereliction of duty twice, failure to comply with instructions, failure to act when squadron members broke rank during a retreat ceremony, failure to display officership, command presence and failure to perform simple drill and ceremonies, failure to display basic job knowledge, complained that a supervisor's feedback was "total bullshit", failure to make timely and accurate changes for the change of command event, substandard performance as an officer, lack of interest and involvement with flight operations, and failure to follow work directions. The DRB opined that through all these administrative actions, the applicant had ample opportunities to change his negative/repetitive behavior. The Board concluded the disciplinary infractions were a significant departure from the conduct expected of all military members, especially an officer. The Board found no evidence of impropriety or inequity in this case on which to base a change of reason or authority.

CONCLUSIONS: The Discharge Review Board concludes that the discharge was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the discharge regulation and was within the discretion of the discharge authority and that the applicant was provided full administrative due process.

In view of the foregoing findings the board further concludes that there exists no legal or equitable basis for change of reason for discharge, thus the applicant's discharge should not be changed.

 (Change Reason and Authority for Discharge)

Issues: The narrative reason for separation with my discharge is incorrect because it does not take into account 5 years and 4 months of honorable and faithful service it is only based on one incident and the personal opinion of one officer which was my supervisor Major ----- . All of his superiors only concurred due to the fact he was the only one allowed to state facts. I have no other adverse actions in the other years of service. My supervisors actual reporting and supervising period were only from June 2001 to September 2001, which does not allow a fair report. He states his period of report is from 1 April 2001 to 15 Nov 2001 which is untrue. I can show this with Document 2. An acquisition examiner never concurred with Officer Performance report in section 1X as required by law therefore it should not be taken into consideration or valid. I stated to my supervisor that I had chosen not to continue with military service based on personal reasons and for my family and this was where there was a incredible decline in my reviews. I have received an honorable discharge which means I have served exceeding required standards of l duty performance. My narrative reason of "unsatisfactory performance (sic) does not coincide. I am requesting line 28 of DD Form 214 be changed to "release from active duty" and honorable discharge on line 24 remain the same.

MEMORANDUM FOR [REDACTED]
412 MXS/LGMP

FROM: 412 TW/CC

SUBJECT: Notification of Show Cause Action Initiated Under AFI 36-3206, Chapter 2, Paragraphs 2.3.1, 2.3.2, 2.3.3, 2.3.4, and 2.3.5.

1. I am initiating action against you under AFI 36-3206, chapter 2, paragraphs 2.3.1, 2.3.2, 2.3.3, 2.3.4, and 2.3.5 that requires you to show cause for retention on active duty.
2. I am taking this action for the specific reasons shown in attachment 1. You have shown no improvement in officership, leadership, management, nor technical knowledge skills required of an officer of your grade and position since your arrival in the 412th Maintenance Squadron from the 450th Test Squadron. Despite efforts to improve your professional shortcomings such as direct guidance from your squadron commander on duties and responsibilities, daily interaction with your supervisor including visits to your work area, and interaction and guidance from co-workers, you have shown neither progress nor the ability to remain an officer or member of the military. The least favorable character of discharge that the Secretary of the Air Force may approve in this case is under honorable conditions (general). Attached are copies of documentary evidence supporting this action.
3. Sign and date the attached indorsement acknowledging receipt of this notification memorandum. A copy of the notification memorandum will be provided to you. If you decline to acknowledge receiving this notification memorandum, the officer presenting it to you will indicate on it, the date and time that you declined to acknowledge receiving it and it will be included as a part of your case file.
4. Familiarize yourself with AFI 36-3206, particularly the rights that you have. If you do not apply for retirement or request a resignation in lieu of further administrative action, an Air Force Personnel Board (AFPB) will convene as provided in chapter 6. Contact the Area Defense Counsel [REDACTED] 277-2809, USAF JUD(ADC) AFLSA, 20 Popson Ave, Bldg 2610, Edwards AFB CA 93524-1265, to discuss the procedures involved and your rights and options. If you decline counsel, contact the Chief, Military Personnel Flight, [REDACTED] 277-2012, 95 MSS/DPM, 125 Methusa Ave, Bldg 2419 Rm 123, Edwards AFB CA 93524, for counseling about your rights and options.

5. Within 10 calendar days after you receive this notification memorandum, you must respond by indorsement to me. If I do not receive the indorsement within the allotted time I will proceed with further action under AFI 36-3206. Include in your indorsement:

a. Any statement you wish to submit on your own behalf and/or any additional evidence that you wish me to consider. If you are unable to submit your statements or documentary evidence within 10 calendar days after receiving this notification memorandum, you may request more time as allowed under AFI 36-3206. Submit your request for additional time to me. If you do not submit statements or evidence, your failure will constitute a waiver of your right to do so and I will refer your case to the AFPB.

b. A statement that [REDACTED] Area Defense Counsel, counseled you and that you fully understand your rights and options in this action. If you declined counsel, so state and indicate that [REDACTED] Chief, Military Personnel Flight, counseled you and that you fully understand your rights and options in this action.

c. A statement that you understand the following regarding recoupment of education assistance, special pay, or bonuses received if you haven't completed the period of active duty you agreed to serve:

- (1). Recoupment of a portion of education assistance, special pay, or bonus monies received if you voluntarily separate.
- (2). Recoupment of a portion of education assistance received if involuntary discharge is for misconduct.
- (3). Recoupment of a portion of special pay or bonus monies received regardless of the basis for involuntary discharge.

The recoupment in all cases is an amount that bears the same ratio to the total amount or cost provided to you as the unserved portion of active duty bears to the total period of active duty that you agreed to serve. If you dispute that you are indebted for educational assistance, the board of inquiry, or, if you do not choose or are not entitled to a board of inquiry, an authority appointed by AFMC/CC will make findings and recommendations concerning the validity of your indebtedness. See AFI 36-3206, 4.32 and 4.33, regarding special rules for recoupment.

d. A statement notifying me whether you intend to apply for retirement or tender your resignation. If you have applied for retirement or tendered your resignation, attach a copy of the retirement application or the resignation.

e. A statement that the Area Defense Counsel or the Chief, Military Personnel Flight, explained separation pay to you and that you understand the eligibility criteria to receive separation pay.

f. Any other pertinent information.

6. In response to this notification memorandum, you may, within 10 calendar days, tender your resignation under AFI 36-3207, chapter 2, section B, with the understanding that, if the Secretary of the Air Force accepts your resignation, you may receive a discharge under honorable conditions (general) unless the Secretary of the Air Force determines that you should receive an honorable discharge. If the Secretary of the Air Force accepts your resignation, your discharge date will be as soon as possible but no later than 10 calendar days after the date that the Military Personnel Flight receives separation instructions.

7. I have taken action required under AFI 31-501.

8. You may request excess leave if the Air Force doesn't require your further participation in processing your case.

Commander
