AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL RATIONALE

GENERAL: The applicant appeals for upgrade of discharge to honorable and to change the reason and authority for the discharge, and to change his reenlistment code.

The applicant was offered a personal appearance before the Discharge Review Board but declined to exercise this right.

The attached brief contains available pertinent data on the applicant and the factors leading to the discharge.

FINDINGS: Upgrade of discharge and change of reason and authority for the discharge, and change of reenlistment code are denied.

The Board finds that neither the evidence of record nor that provided by the applicant substantiates an inequity or impropriety that would justify a change of discharge.

Issue. Applicant was discharged for drug abuse as a result of a positive urinalysis for the metabolites of marijuana at twice the Department of Defense cut-off, which he now contends was a departure from his normal behavior. The records indicated the applicant also had a Letter of Reprimand for failure to go. At the time of the discharge, member submitted matters indicating he was inadvertently involved when in the company of civilian friends, while they were smoking in the confines of a closed car over a 2-hour period. Member claimed he was the victim of passive inhalation. The Legal Review noted however that 21 days had elapsed from the date member said he was with his friends and the date he provided the urine sample. According to the Legal Review, the fact that the sample was positive after that period of time would indicate chronic use rather than passive inhalation. The Board concluded member's apparent misconduct was incompatible with Air Force standards and an extremely significant departure from conduct expected of all military members. Member would have been well aware of the Air Force's zero tolerance policy for drug abuse. For the period of service under review, his misconduct was sufficient reason for receiving a general discharge.

While the Board commends applicant on his desire to return to military service, and is sympathetic to the impact a General discharge has on his reenlistment code, this is not a matter of equity or propriety that warrants an upgrade.

CONCLUSIONS: The Discharge Review Board concludes that the discharge was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the discharge regulation and was within the discretion of the discharge authority and that the applicant was provided full administrative due process.

In view of the foregoing findings the board further concludes that there exists no legal or equitable basis for upgrade of discharge, thus the applicant's discharge should not be changed.

Issue 1: I have no prior use of marijuana. It was an error in judgement (sic) which I never thought would happen to airman like myself. Drug abuse is a departure from my customary behavior. I provided a second urine sample to prove that the results came back with negative results. I did everything in my nature from being discharged. To the commander's discretion he did so. I have no desire to engage in or intend to engage in drug abuse in the present and in the future. My Air Force career meant the world to me. Drug abuse took away what I worked so hard to build. I regret being around the substance. I sincerely apologize for embarrassing the Air Force. I will do anything to bring credit back upon the Air Force and myself. Allow me the chance to move past this incident and allow me to earn discharge upgrade to honorable so that one day I will be able to join the Air Force team again or another military branch of service. I am a productive member in the United States Military and I promise that I will continue and give 110 percent in all I do. Thank you for your time and consideration.
