AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL RATIONALE

CASE NUMBER

FD-2004-00425

GENERAL: The applicant appeals for upgrade of discharge to honorable.

The applicant was offered a personal appearance before the Discharge Review Board (DRB) but declined to exercise this right.

The attached brief contains available pertinent data on the applicant and the factors leading to the discharge.

FINDINGS: Upgrade of discharge is denied.

The Board finds that neither the evidence of record nor that provided by the applicant substantiates an inequity or impropriety that would justify a change of discharge.

ISSUE: Applicant contends that based on a mental evaluation she was in no shape to deploy and her commander continued to push her by giving her paperwork for everything she did wrong and in some cases, uncalled for which caused more stress and problems in the work center. The records reflect the applicant received a general discharge for a pattern of misconduct--conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline, and mental disorder. Her misconduct included an Article 15 for false certification of AF Form 3616, Daily Record of Facility Operation, and failing to remain awake and alert while on duty and one Letter of Reprimand for willfully attempting to avoid deployment. The Board concluded the misconduct was a significant departure from conduct expected of all military members. The characterization of the discharge received by the applicant was found to be appropriate.

The Board noted the applicant's notification for separation contained misconduct which occurred during her first enlistment and should not have been included. This error was considered as a harmless error and would not have prejudiced the applicant and, therefore, would not have resulted in a different outcome.

CONCLUSIONS: The Discharge Review Board concludes that the discharge was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the discharge regulation and was within the discretion of the discharge authority and that the applicant was provided full administrative due process.

In view of the foregoing findings, the Board further concludes that there exists no legal or equitable basis for upgrade of discharge, thus the applicant's discharge should not be changed.

MEMORANDUM FOR A1C

FROM: 509 OSS/CC

SUBJECT: Notification Memorandum

1. I am recommending your discharge from the United States Air Force for a pattern of misconduct prejudicial to good order and discipline and a mental disorder. The authorities for this action are AFPD 36-32 and AFI 36-3208, paragraph 5.50.2 and AFPD 36-32 and AFI 36-3208, paragraph 5.11.9. If my recommendation is approved your service will be characterized as under honorable (general) conditions.

2. My reason for this action is:

- a. On 27 Sept 02, you signed an official record which was false and was then known by you to be false. For this misconduct, you received an Article 15 dated 18 Oct 02.
- b. An evaluation at the Whiteman AFB Mental Health Clinic, on 30 Sept 02, revealed that you are suffering from Adjustment Disorder with anxiety and depressed mood. The Life Skills Flight commander has determined your disorder to be so severe that your ability to function effectively in the military environment is significantly impaired. This diagnosis is evidenced by a memorandum from the Life Skills Flight Commander of Mental Health, dated 30 Sept 02. (Atch 1a)
- c. Investigation revealed that on or about 4 Sept 02, you willfully attempted to avoid deployment. For this misconduct, you received an LOR dated 10 Sept 02.
- d. On the weekend of 26 27 Jan 02, you failed to complete the Facility Standards Checklist. For this misconduct, you received an LOR dated 4 Feb 02.
- e. You were found to be derelict in your duties and you failed to maintain proper military bearing to an NCO. For this misconduct, you received and RIC dated 1 Dec 01
- f. On Oct 19 01, you failed to validate an aircraft's request to land at Whiteman Air Force Base. For this misconduct, you received an LOR dated 30 Oct 01.

3. This action could result in your separation with an under honorable (general) conditions discharge. The commander exercising Special Court-Martial Convening authority or a higher authority will make the final decision in this matter. If you are discharged you will be ineligible for reenlistment in the Air Force and will probably be denied enlistment in any component of the armed forces. Any special pay, bonus or education assistance funds may be subject to recoupment.

4. You have the right to consult counsel. Military legal counsel has been obtained to assist you. I have made an appointment for you to consult Captain and the Bldg 509 on $\underline{\mathcal{Y}} + \underline{\mathcal{O}} + \underline{$

6. If you fail to consult counsel or to submit statements in your own behalf, your failure will constitute a waiver of your rights to do so.

7. You have been scheduled for a medical examination. You must report to Physical Exams at 0900 on 34001 o 2-for the examination.

8. Any personal information you furnish in rebuttal is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974. A copy of AFI 36-3208 is available for your use in your unit's Orderly Room.

9. Execute the attached acknowledgment and return it to me immediately.

Lt Col, USAF

Commander
