AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL RATIONALE

CASE NUMBER

FD-2005-00206

GENERAL: The applicant appeals for upgrade of discharge to honorable.

The applicant was offered a personal appearance before the Discharge Review Board (DRB) but declined to exercise this right.

The attached brief contains available pertinent data on the applicant and the factors leading to the discharge.

FINDINGS: The Board grants the requested relief.

The Board finds that neither the evidence of record nor that provided by applicant substantiates an impropriety that would justify a change of discharge. However, based upon the record and evidence provided by applicant, the Board finds the applicant's discharge characterization and reason and authority for discharge inequitable.

ISSUE: Applicant contends discharge was inequitable because it was too harsh. The records indicated the applicant received a General Discharge due to Fraudulent Entry into the Air Force. Applicant states that her recruiter told her to check "no" to the question concerning travel card abuse since her misuse was not malicious. The record indicates a letter from the recruiter stating this fact. Also, the action officer on this Discharge Review contacted the recruiter and he confirmed what was in the record and what he informed the applicant. The DRB opined that through no fault of the applicant, the General discharge and fraudulent enlistment is inequitable.

CONCLUSIONS: The Discharge Review Board concludes that the discharge was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the discharge regulation and was within the discretion of the discharge authority and that the applicant was provided full administrative due process.

However, in view of the foregoing findings, the Board further concludes that the overall quality of applicant's service is more accurately reflected by an Honorable discharge and the reason and authority for the discharge is more accurately described as Secretarial Authority under the provisions of Title 10, USC 1553.

STATEMENT

On August 03, 2003 I was interviewed by [REDACTED] at Dover, AFB. On AF form 1288 there was a question concerning the government travel card. He stated to me, "If I had misused or had been seriously delinquent with my travel card within the last 60 days." I replied YES I was once delinquent due to TDY travel voucher late processing. I payed my delinquency from my income to stop actions against me from being seriously delinquent on my card in early 2001. I was later reimbursed when the travel voucher was processed and placed on my travel card. In consistency with the question I did tell [REDACTED] that I had been delinquent in 2001, but upon signing my application I had not misused or was not delinquent. He told me to answer NO to the question with the same intention that I had of no malicious or misuse. Sincerely I did not purposefully commit AFI 36-3209, Fraudulent Entry on my application.
