AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL RATIONALE

CASE NUMBER

FD-2009-00123

GENERAL: The applicant appeals for upgrade of discharge to honorable, to change the reason and authority for the discharge, and to change the reenlistment code.

The applicant appeared and testified before the Discharge Review Board (DRB), without counsel, at Andrews AFB on 26 Oct 2010.

The attached brief contains available pertinent data on the applicant and the factors leading to the discharge.

FINDING: The Board denies the upgrade of the discharge; change of reason and authority for discharge, and change of reenlistment code are denied.

The Board finds that neither the evidence of record nor that provided by the applicant substantiates an inequity or impropriety that would justify a change of discharge.

ISSUE:

Issue 1. Applicant submitted no issues regarding the inequity or impropriety of his discharge. The applicant does submit that he believes he deserves a second chance despite his discrepancies so that he may serve his country in the United States Air Force. He has matured since his discharge and would like to serve out his remaining commitment and provide for his family. The record indicates the applicant received two Article 15s, two Letters of Reprimand, one Letter of Counseling, four Records of Individual Counseling, and numerous verbal counseling's. His misconduct included failure to report (10x), writing bad checks (9x), and a traffic violation. The Board opined that through these administrative actions, the applicant had ample opportunities to change his behavior. They found the seriousness of the willful misconduct offset any positive aspects of the applicant's duty performance. The Board reviewed the entire record and found no evidence of impropriety or inequity to warrant an upgrade of the discharge.

Issue 2. The DRB was pleased to see that the applicant was providing for his family and participating in volunteer activities. However, no inequity or impropriety in his discharge was suggested or found in the course of the hearing. The Board concluded the misconduct of the applicant appropriately characterized his term of service.

CONCLUSION: The Discharge Review Board concludes that the discharge was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the discharge regulation and was within the discretion of the discharge authority and the applicant was provided full administrative due process.

In view of the foregoing findings, the Board further concludes that there exists no legal or equitable basis for upgrade of discharge and determines the discharge should remain unchanged.

MEMORANDUM FOR [REDACTED]

FROM: 7 EMS/CC

SUBJECT: Notification Memorandum

1. I am recommending your discharge from the United States Air Force for a pattern of misconduct, discreditable involvement with military or civil authorities. The authority for this action is AFD 36-32 and AFI 36-3208, Chapter 5, section H, paragraph 5.50.1. If your discharge is approved, your service will be characterized as honorable or under honorable conditions (general). I am recommending that your service be characterized as under honorable conditions (general).
2. My reasons for this action are:
 - a. You did, on 8 Aug 01, without authority, report late for duty for the third consecutive day. For this misconduct you were counseled, as evidenced by AF Form 174, dated 13 Aug 01.
 - b. You did, on 21 Oct 01, without authority, report 50 minutes late for duty, and you did, on 23 Oct 01, report 5 minutes late for duty. For this misconduct you were counseled, as evidenced by LOC, dated 23 Oct 01.
 - c. You did, on 29 Jan 02, without authority, report 55 minutes late for duty, for which you were reprimanded, as evidenced by LOR, dated 1 Feb 01.
 - d. You did, on 11 Jul 02, without authority, report approximately 4 hours late for duty, for which you received Article 15 punishment, as evidenced by AF Form 3070, dated 4 Sep 02.
 - e. You did, on or about 28 Feb 03, without authority, report 55 minutes late for duty, for which you were counseled, as evidenced by AF Form 174, dated 18 Feb 03.
 - f. You did, on 29 Mar 03, without authority, report approximately 1 hour late for duty, for which you were counseled, as evidenced by AF Form 174, dated 29 Mar 03.
 - g. You did, on 24 Apr 03, fail to use child restraints in a vehicle you were driving, for which you were verbally counseled, as evidence by Armed Forces Traffic Ticket D370755, dated 24 Apr 03.

h. He did, on or about 14 May 03, dishonorably fail to pay a just debt to the District Attorney's office in that he failed to pay for 9 outstanding checks after he had been contacted by the local District Attorney and given the opportunity to take care of the checks before a warrant was issued. For this misconduct you were reprimanded, as evidenced by LOR, dated 22 May 03.

i. He did, on 19 May 03, without authority, report late for duty, for which he received Article 15 punishment, as evidenced by AF Form 3070, dated 11 Jun 03.

4. MEMBER'S RESPONSE: [REDACTED] waived is right to consult and he waived his right to submit statements regarding this discharge action.

5. ERRORS OR IRREGULARITIES: None.

6. CHARACTERIZATION OF DISCHARGE: Under AFI 36-3208, Table 1.3, this member may be separated with an under other than honorable conditions discharge. [REDACTED] would be entitled to have his case heard by an administrative board if such a characterization was recommended. After reviewing all the relevant facts and circumstances, the squadron commander has recommended that [REDACTED] receive an under honorable conditions (general) discharge. A general discharge is appropriate when significant negative aspects of an airman's conduct or performance outweigh the positive military record. [REDACTED] record reflects a consistent and sustained pattern of misconduct that outweighs the positive aspects of his record. A general discharge is appropriate in this case.

7. PROBATION AND REHABILITATION: According to AFI 36-3208, Chapter 7, probation and rehabilitation should be offered to airmen who have demonstrated a potential to serve satisfactorily; who have the capacity to be rehabilitated for continued military service; and for those whose retention on active duty in a probationary status is consistent with the maintenance of good order and discipline in the Air Force. The squadron commander has tried to rehabilitate [REDACTED] giving him the opportunity to overcome his deficiencies as required by AFI 36-3208, paragraph 5.2. Specifically, the commander used the following rehabilitative tools: Four Letters of Counseling; two Letters of Reprimand; Article 15 punishment (30 days correctional custody and suspended reduction in rank); and Article 15 punishment (reduction in rank). [REDACTED] continued misconduct and failure to respond to the various corrective efforts already taken, including correctional custody, have demonstrated neither a potential to serve satisfactorily nor a capacity to be rehabilitated. Retention of this member would be inconsistent with the maintenance of good order and discipline in the Air Force.

8. OPTIONS OF THE SEPARATION AUTHORITY: Your options in this case are:

a. Retain the member in the Air Force.

- b. Discharge the member with a general discharge, with or without probation and rehabilitation.
- c. Recommend to 12 AF/CC that the airman be separated with an honorable discharge with or without probation and rehabilitation if you believe an honorable discharge is appropriate.
- d. Direct this action be initiated under administrative board proceedings if you believe only an under other than honorable conditions discharge can properly characterize [REDACTED] service.

9. RECOMMENDATION: I recommend that you separate [REDACTED] with a general discharge, without the opportunity for probation and rehabilitation.
