EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The applicant was discharged with an entry level separation due to the inability to adapt during the first 180 days of service. The applicant claimed to be unable to cope with boot camp due to immaturity, and their mother's illness at the time. The applicant wanted out of the service after seven weeks at recruit training.

The Board finds no issues with propriety or equity in this case.

An uncharacterized character of service is not derogatory in nature and is the prescribed character for individuals who were separated while at initial accession training and there was no associated conduct to warrant a less desirable character of service.

An RE3 reentry code is not an affirmative recommendation for reenlistment, rather it represents that the applicant is not recommended for reenlistment due to a disqualifying factor. The RE3 code may be waived based upon the policies and needs of the gaining service. The RE3L in this case identifies that the applicant was an Entry Level Separation that must have a waiver to reenlist.

Propriety: Discharge was proper.

Equity: Discharge was equitable.

Final Adjudication by Assistant Commandant For Human Resources: No relief.
