BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 2773-03
23 July 2003

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 23 July 2003. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by Headquarters Marine Corps dated 28 March 2003, a copy of which is attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

The Board did not consider whether your characterization of service or reason for separation should be changed, since you did not ask for such consideration and you have not exhausted your administrative remedy by applying to the Naval Discharge Review Board (NDRB). You may apply to NDRB by submitting the attached DD Form 293.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records.

Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director

MEMORANDUM FOR THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

Subj: BCNR APPLICATION IN THE CASE OF FORMER [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] SUBJ: RECODE

Encl: (1) [REDACTED] DD Form 149 of 11 Jan 2003

1. [REDACTED] service record has been reviewed and it has been determined that her reenlistment code of RE-4 was correctly assigned. The reenlistment code was assigned based on her overall record and means that she was not recommended for reenlistment at the time of separation.
2. [REDACTED] was discharged Under Honorable Conditions (General) on July 2, 2002 by reason of Personality Disorder. A review of the administrative portion of her service record indicates that she was counseled concerning failing the PFT, being away from her appointed place of duty, and a diagnosed personality disorder. The disciplinary portion of the record shows that she received two nonjudicial punishments under the Uniform Code of Military Justice for offenses which included failure to obey a direct order, being disrespectful toward a staff noncommissioned officer, making a false official statement, and violating a Battalion Order by having her tongue pierced and wearing the accessory. It is also noted that [REDACTED] suffered from a personality disorder of such severity that it interfered with her ability to function effectively in the military environment.
3. After a review of all relevant information, this Headquarters concurs in the professional evaluation of [REDACTED] qualifications for reenlistment at the time of separation. Once a code is correctly assigned it is not routinely changed or upgraded as a result of events that occur after separation or based merely on the passage of time.
4. The enclosure is returned for final action.
