

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TRG
Docket No: 1590-07
28 January 2008

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 23 January 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Naval Reserve on 13 March 1987 at age 20. At that time you agreed to serve on active duty for three years and as a drilling reservist for three years. Your record shows that you served on active duty from 24 March 1987 to 23 March 1990. At that time, you were released from active duty with your service characterized as honorable with an RE-1 reenlistment code. A Statement of Service for Naval Reserve Retirement was obtained and shows that you never completed your three year drilling obligation. The record shows that you were honorably discharged on 30 May 1991 and were not recommended for reenlistment. The discharge package is not filed in the record but the Board assumed that you were discharged because of unsatisfactory participation. Regulations require that an individual not be recommended for reenlistment when they are discharged because of unsatisfactory participation.

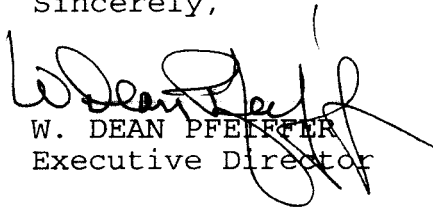

Since it is clear that you did not complete your drilling obligation as required by the program in which you enlisted, the Board concluded that the record should not be corrected to show that you were recommended for reenlistment on 30 May 1991.

Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
