

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

JRE
Docket No. 04182-08
13 August 2008

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 May 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you were discharged from the Navy on 28 Marcy 2007, when you were discharged by reason of a condition, not a disability, which interfered with your performance of duty, and assigned a reentry code of RE-3G, to indicate that you require a waiver in order to become eligible for reenlistment.

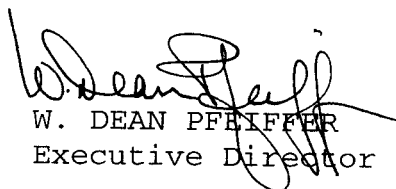

As you were assigned the most favorable reentry code authorized for a Sailor discharged by reason of a condition, not a disability, and as you have not demonstrated that it would be in the interest of justice for the Board to assign a more favorable code as an exception to policy, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

If you wish to contest the basis for your separation, you may apply to NDRB by submitting the enclosed DD Form 293. If you are unsatisfied with the results of the NDRB review, you may reapply to the Board for Correction of Naval Records.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
