

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TAL
Docket No: 02761-09
8 January 2010

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 16 December 2009. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 26 January 1971 at age 19. On 14 July 1971, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for a two day period of unauthorized absence (UA) from your unit. On 19 August 1971, you received NJP for a thirteen day period of UA from your unit. On 18 November 1971, you were convicted by summary court-martial (SCM) of a 16 day period of UA from your unit. On 24 December 1971, you were convicted of civilian charges and sentenced to 16 days confinement. On 8 February 1972, you were convicted by SCM of a 19 day period of UA from your unit. On 11 October 1972, you were convicted by special court-martial (SPCM) of a 111 day period of UA from your unit and sentenced to four months of confinement, forfeiture of pay, and a bad conduct discharge (BCD). You received the BCD after appellate review was completed.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your misconduct that resulted in two NJP's, a civilian conviction, two SCM's and one SPCM conviction. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
