

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TAL
Docket No: 7577-09
4 June 2010

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 27 May 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 28 February 1975 at age 20. You were the subject of an investigation to determine whether you fraudulently enlisted by concealing your pre-service drug use. It was found that you did fail to disclose your pre-service drug use during the enlistment process. On 29 April 1975, administrative discharge action was initiated to separate you by reason of misconduct. On 4 May 1975, your commanding officer directed your separation. Subsequently, on 7 May 1975 you were separated with a general discharge due to misconduct.

The Board in its review of your application carefully weighed all potential mitigating factors, such as your youth, and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board concluded that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your misconduct. Finally, no discharge is upgraded merely because of the passage of time. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
