

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BAN
Docket No: 10451-09
7 July 2010

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 1 July 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 26 September 1972, and served without disciplinary incident until 8 August 1973, when you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for sleeping on post. Shortly thereafter, you received the following NJP's: on 27 August 1973, for provoking speech or gesture; on 11 September 1973, for an unauthorized absence (UA), and disobeying a lawful order; and on 12 March 1974, for provoking speech or gesture, two specifications of UA, willful disobedience, and intoxicated while on duty. Additionally, on 20 March 1974, you were convicted at a summary court-martial for three specifications of disobeying a lawful order. You were pending a court-martial for willfully disobeying a lawful order, assault, disrespect, and communicating a threat. However, you requested through counsel, to be separated to escape a trial by court-martial. Therefore, on 31 May 1974, you were separated with an other than honorable discharge and an RE-4 reenlistment code, in lieu of a trial by court-martial. As a result of this action, you were spared the stigma of a court-martial conviction and the potential penalties of a punitive discharge and confinement at hard labor.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and belief that enough time has elapsed to warrant upgrading your discharge. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge because of the seriousness of your misconduct. Further, there is no provision of law or in regulation that allow for recharacterization of service due solely to the passage of time. Finally, The Board believed that considerable clemency was extended to you when your request for discharge to avoid trial by court-martial was approved. It was clear to the Board that you received the benefit of your bargain with the Marine Corps when your request for discharge was granted and should be permitted to change it now. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
