

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BJG
Docket No: 747-10
13 October 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 5 October 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. You entered active duty in the Navy on 9 February 1978. You received nonjudicial punishment on three occasions in one month while at recruit training for unauthorized absence (two specifications totaling four days), disobeying a lawful order, disrespect, and willfully violating a regulation. You were notified that your commanding officer was recommending you for administrative separation due to unsuitability with a type warranted by your service record characterization. You received a general discharge under honorable conditions due to unsuitability on 18 April 1978.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and current medical problems. However, the Board concluded that your discharge should not be changed because of your misconduct. The Board concluded that you were fortunate to receive a general characterization of service, because individuals who are separated for misconduct such as yours normally receive an other than honorable discharge. The Board noted that to be eligible for veterans' benefits, an individual must have served on active duty a minimum of 180 days. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
