

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TAL
Docket No: 1315-10
28 October 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 27 October 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 10 December 1980 at age 19. You received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for failure to go to your appointed place of duty. You were counseled regarding your misconduct and warned that further offenses could result in administrative separation. On 16 September 1981 you were convicted by a summary court-martial of unauthorized absence (UA) from your unit for a period of 49 days. On 25 September 1981, you received NJP for UA from your unit and disobeying a lawful order. You were notified of pending administrative discharge processing with an other than honorable (OTH) discharge due to misconduct (frequent involvement). You waived all of your procedural rights, including your right to an administrative discharge board (ADB). On 9 October 1981 you received the OTH discharge for misconduct (frequent involvement).

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your misconduct that resulted in two NJPs and a SCM. The Board noted that you waived the right to an ADB, your best chance for retention or a better characterization of service. Finally, there is no provision of law or in Navy regulations that allows for the recharacterization of service due solely to the passage of time. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
