

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 3072-10
1 March 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 24 February 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you enlisted in the Navy Reserve on 19 July 1985. You were absent without authority from 7 January to 27 April 1988 and from 29 August to 6 September 1988. The absences were recorded as time lost on the DD Form 214 you were issued on 30 April 1989, which you signed.

The Board was not persuaded it would be in the interest of justice to grant active duty service credit for the periods when you were absent without authority. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

Your request to change your DD Form 214 to show that you were a high school graduate, should be addressed to the Navy Personnel Command, Pers 312, 5722 Integrity Drive, Millington, TN 38054.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
