

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS^{TRE}
2 NAVY ANNEX Docket No. 03460-10
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100 31 January 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 21 January 2011. After careful consideration of your application, the Board concluded that your application was not timely filed, and that it would not be in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. Although you claim you discovered the alleged error or injustice in your record on 8 March 2008, the Board concluded that 15 July 1983, when you were separated from the Navy with a bad conduct discharge, you knew that you had been discharged without entitlement to disability benefits administered by the Department of the Navy. In addition, the Board noted that your punitive discharge would have precluded you from being referred to the Navy Disability Evaluation System at that time.

You may request reconsideration of this decision. Your request must include newly discovered relevant evidence which was not reasonably available to you when you submitted your application. The evidence may pertain to the timeliness of your application or to its merits. Absent such additional evidence, further review of your application is not possible.

It is regretted that a more favorable reply cannot be made.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
