

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TJR
Docket No: 4886-09
26 April 2010

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 April 2010. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy on 2 March 1989 at age 19 and served for a year without disciplinary incident. However, during the period from 31 March 1988 to 1 June 1990, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on five occasions for two specifications of committing false or unauthorized pass offenses, a 16 day period of unauthorized absence, missing the movement of your ship, disobedience, failure to pay just debts, communicating a threat, and wrongful distribution of lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD).

Subsequently, you were processed for an administrative separation by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct and commission of a serious offense as evidenced by your wrongful distribution of LSD. After waiving your procedural rights, the discharge authority directed discharge under other than honorable conditions by reason of misconduct, and on 17 July 1990, you were so discharged.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and desire to upgrade your discharge. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge because of the seriousness of your repetitive misconduct which resulted in five NJPs and drug abuse. Finally, you were given an opportunity to defend yourself, but waived your procedural right to present your case to an administrative discharge board. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFRI Executive Di
