

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TAL
Docket No: 9749-10
24 June 2011

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552:

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 22 June 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 24 November 1980 at age 19. On 22 November 1982, you were convicted by special court-martial (SPCM) of two instances of unauthorized absence (UA) from your unit for 482 days. The sentence imposed was confinement for 30 days, a forfeiture of pay, reduction in paygrade and a bad conduct discharge (BCD). On 22 December 1982, you were UA from your unit until you were apprehended by the Newport, California police department on 5 May 1983. You were convicted in civilian court of automobile grand theft and burglary and sentenced to 12 months confinement. On 1 September 1983, you were released and returned to military authority. On 26 September 1983, you were discharged with a BCD after appellate review.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your misconduct that resulted in periods of UA totaling over one year and eight months, a SPCM conviction and a civilian conviction. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
