

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

JRE
Docket No. 11251-10
19 August 2011

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

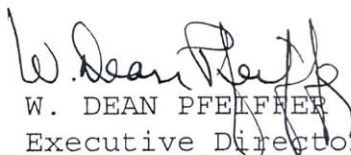

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 18 August 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this regard, it concluded that there is no credible evidence in the available records which even suggests that the mental disorders for which you unsuccessfully sought disability compensation from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) in 2009 were incurred in or aggravated by your service in the Navy Reserve from 12 to 20 September 2005. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

The Board does not have the authority to direct that the VA extend the period of your entitlement to certain benefits administered by the VA. If you believe that your DD Form 214 for the 12 to 20 September 2005 period requires administrative correction, you should contact the Commander, Navy Personnel Command.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
