

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

WJH
Docket: 12634-10
5 April 2011

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 USC 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 30 March 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with the administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by the United States Marine Corps letter 5400 RAM of 11 Feb 2011, a copy of which is attached. The Board also considered your reply to the advisory opinion dated 15 March 2011.

The Board notes that you have applied for a correction to your record for alleged error that allegedly occurred approximately twenty years ago. Under the rules governing this Board, an application for a correction of a naval record must be made within three years after the discovery of the alleged error. Failure to file within the prescribed three years may be excused only in cases where the Board finds that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

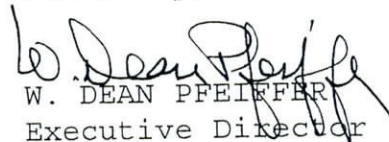

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. The Board found that it is not in the interests of justice to excuse the three year time limit in your particular case. You neglected to assert your claim for an inordinately long period of time without sufficient justification. Additionally, the Board concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion. Accession into the AR program is highly competitive. In the Board's view, the evidence does not show that your non-selection for the program was erroneous or unjust or that any fitness reports should be removed from your record.

Based on the circumstances described above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is also important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
