

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

JRE
Docket No. 13144-10
7 February 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 February 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

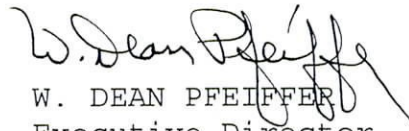

You served in the Marine Corps from 26 February to 2 July 2008, when you were discharged for the convenience of the government by reason of a condition, not a disability, that interfered with your performance of duty. As you require a waiver of that condition in order to become eligible to reenlist, you were assigned a reentry code of RE-3P.

The Board concluded that in the absence of evidence which demonstrates that you did not suffer from a painful condition of your left lower extremity which interfered with your ability to successfully complete training in the Marine Corps, but was not disabling, there is no basis for assigning you a more favorable reentry code than RE-3P. The Board noted that your reentry code is waivable, and should not preclude your reenlistment if the disqualifying condition is no longer symptomatic and you are otherwise qualified and eligible for reenlistment. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
