

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TJR
Docket No: 867-11
21 October 2011

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 18 October 2011. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy on 2 November 1972 at age 18 and served for about a year without disciplinary incident. However, on 14 November and again on 28 December 1973, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for two specifications of disobedience. About four months later, on 15 April 1975, you received your third NJP for wrongful possession of marijuana and were awarded a $390 forfeiture of pay, reduction to paygrade E-1, and correctional custody for 30 days.

Subsequently, you were processed for an administrative separation by reason of convenience of the government due to substandard performance. After waiving your procedural rights, the discharge authority directed discharge under honorable conditions, and on 15 May 1975, you were issued a general discharge.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and desire to upgrade the characterization of your general discharge. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your general discharge because of your misconduct, which resulted in NJP, and included drug abuse. Finally, the Board noted that you were fortunate to receive a general discharge since Sailors discharged with a record of misconduct, such as yours, normally receive discharges under other than honorable conditions. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
