BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

BAN
Docket No: 05250-11
29 February 2012

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 29 February 2012. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

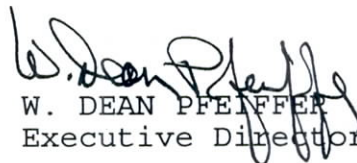

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You entered active duty in the Navy on 23 November 1982, and served without disciplinary incident until 14 March 1984, when you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for the wrongful use of a controlled substance. Shortly thereafter, on 9 April 1984, you received NJP for an unauthorized absence, missing ship's movement, and breaking restriction. Additionally, on 1 June 1984, you received another NJP for the wrongful use of a controlled substance. On 5 June 1984, you were deemed not drug dependent. You were recommended for administrative separation with an other than honorable (OTH) discharge due to your drug abuse. You waived your rights to counsel and an administrative discharge board (ADB). The separation authority approved the recommendation and on 19 June 1984, you were separated with an OTH discharge due to misconduct (drug abuse) and an RE-4 reenlistment code.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, marital issues, and allegation that an officer suggested that you abuse drugs to get out of the Navy. However, the Board concluded these factors were insufficient to warrant upgrading your discharge because of the seriousness of your offense (drug abuse). The Board also noted that you waived your procedural right to an ADB, your best opportunity for retention or a better characterization of service. Finally, the Board found no evidence in your record to support your allegation, and you provided no such evidence. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
