

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

SJN
Docket No: 02429-12
22 March 2012

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 March 2012. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

On 15 March 2002, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for larceny of another Marine's cellular telephone. You received 45 days restriction and extra duty. At that time, you were advised of your right to appeal and elected not to submit an appeal.

The Board concluded that your commanding officer's decision to impose NJP was appropriate, and administratively and procedurally correct as written and filed. The Board further concluded that the removal of the NJP is not warranted, and that such action would be unfair to your peers, against whom you will compete for promotions and assignments. With regard to your belief that your NJP may cause a hindrance in your promotions and retention in the Marine Corps, the Board noted that you did not appeal your NJP, and since have been promoted despite receiving it. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
