

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TAL
Docket No: 2390-14/
250-98
20 March 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your recent reconsideration request. You previously petitioned the Board and were advised in our letters of 8 December 1999, 16 July 2004, 26 April 2007, and 20 September 2007, that your application had been denied.

Your current request has been carefully examined by a three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session on 18 March 2015. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your letter, any material submitted in support of your application, and your husband's prior case file.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board determined your letter explaining your husband's mental disorder, even though not previously considered by the Board, was insufficient to establish the existence of material error or injustice. The Board determined your letter was not enough to outweigh the significant misconduct your husband committed while on active duty. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regrettable that the circumstances of your husband's case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. Given that the Board has unfavorably considered your request for relief multiple times this matter is considered a final agency action. If you wish to continue to seek relief you will need to present a complaint to a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert J. O'Neill", is written over the typed name.

ROBERT J. O'NEILL
Executive Director
