

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TAL
Docket No: 4155-14
7 May 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your application on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 April 2015. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 1 August 1972. You served for 10 months without disciplinary incident, but during the period from 28 June 1973 to 14 June 1974, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on three occasions and were convicted by special court-martial. Your offenses were failure to go to your appointed place of duty, insubordinate conduct toward a noncommissioned officer, failure to obey a lawful order, unauthorized absence (UA), missed ship's movement, willfully disobeying a commissioned officer.

Subsequently, you were notified of pending administrative separation by reason of misconduct due to frequent involvement of a discreditable nature at which time you waived your procedural rights to consult with legal counsel and to present your case to an administrative discharge board (ADB). Your commanding officer recommended discharge under honorable conditions by reason of misconduct due to frequent involvement. The discharge authority approved this recommendation and directed separation under honorable conditions by reason of misconduct, and on 6 August 1974, you were so discharged.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your desire to upgrade your discharge. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your repeated misconduct. Finally, the Board believed that you were fortunate to receive a general discharge since a separation under other than honorable conditions is often directed when a Sailor is separated for frequent disciplinary infractions. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

The Board recommends that you should contact the Department of Navy, Navy Personnel Command (Pers-3C), 5720 Integrity Drive, Millington, TN 38055-3120 to request that administrative corrections be made to your Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214) such as, but not inclusive of, your date of birth, social security number, or record of service.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in your case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert J. O'Neill", written in a cursive style.
