

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

ES
Docket No: 6329-14
13 May 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your application on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 6 May 2015. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 26 November 1982. You served for about five months without disciplinary incident, but during the period from 28 April to 21 November 1983, you received two nonjudicial punishments (NJP) for absence from your appointed place of duty, disrespect, disobedience, communicating a threat, breaking restriction, uttering disloyal statements, unlawful drink of alcohol while underage, being drunk on post, drunk and disorderly conduct, and assault. You were also convicted by special court-martial (SPCM) of an unspecified period of unauthorized absence (UA), four periods of being absent from your appointed place of duty, and wrongful possession and use of marijuana.

Subsequently, following SPCM you were adjudged confinement at hard labor for three months, forfeitures of $382.00 pay for three months and a bad conduct discharge (BCD). After the BCD was approved at all levels of review, on 18 January 1985, you were discharged.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors and desire to upgrade your discharge. Nevertheless, based on the information currently contained in your record, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant an upgrade of your discharge given your misconduct which resulted in SPCM and two NJPs. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in your case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT J. O'NEILL
Executive Director
