

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001

TAL
Docket No: 6846-14/
10982-12
21 November 2014

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your reconsideration request dated 13 May 2014 with enclosures. You previously petitioned the Board and were advised in our letter of 1 August 2013, that your application had been denied.

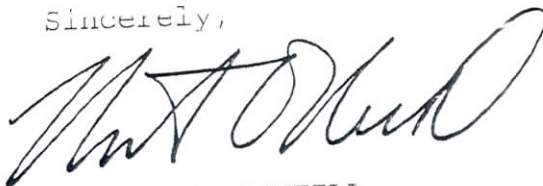

Your current request has been carefully examined by a three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, any material submitted in support of your application, and prior case file.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board determined your letter, even though not previously considered by the Board, was insufficient to establish the existence of material error or injustice. The Board determined the letter you provided was not enough to outweigh the significant misconduct you committed while on active duty. Concerning your assertions that you were an alcohol abuser, you sustained injuries and did not graduate from high school, they are not mitigating factors for misconduct. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regrettable that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in your case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "R. J. O'Neill", written in a cursive style.

ROBERT J. O'NEILL
Executive Director
